

SUMMER 2020

High-velocity precision talent sourcing for technical skill positions

LIMELIGHT

Quick, accurate & cost effective

The Limelight Process

Cast

We proactively source the most qualified leads through job boards, interest groups, and our growing, proprietary candidate network.

REACH

Stage

We use our screening technology to assess relevant skills and identify quality talent.

REVIEW

Showtime

We rapidly identify the top candidates and pass them on to you.

REFER

You give us a job opening.

We provide pre-qualified candidates.

It's that easy.

From there, your existing process takes over. Interview, vet and hire your preferred candidate – all on your terms.

And the best thing?

Our platform automates the most labor-intensive parts of our service – and we pass the savings on to you.

FAQ

Are you a traditional recruiting agency?

No. Our technology is custom-built to find and screen technically-skilled professionals. Our platform is often lower cost - designed to reach, review and refer top candidates.

Are you a staffing agency?

No. The candidates we find for you are yours to hire.

How does the pricing work?

We charge a flat monthly fee based on the number of positions you are hiring for.

Where do you get your candidates?

We source candidates through job boards, social networks, and a proprietary list of pre-qualified candidates.

Can you analyze candidates that applied directly on our website or are already in our database?

Of course! Just forward them to us and we will vet them using the same system.
